

Selected Vocabulary from “Trouble With Money / Mázaska Kamná Sáŋm Iyéič’iyapi”

aíkpažužu – to overdo something; make a fool out of oneself anáwizi – to be jealous of somebody as’íŋ – to desire something, long for, secretly wish for épħaŋši – my female cousin (female speaking)

hašsníyaŋ – ice cream éčuħčih – at least; at any rate ékičiktunžA – to excuse or forget something someone did, excuse someone for doing something él éwačih – to be interested in something or someone glešká – spotted henákeča – to be that many or that much, that amount, as many as that iglamna – to earn or gain something for oneself igláwa – to set a price for one’s own išičhola – free, at no cost iškiŋčiyA – to get busy or active in regard to a task kašpápi – a dime, ten cents (also applied to coins/change in general) lol’ópħethuŋ – to shop for groceries mahówiŋža ógle – a down jacket okhíse – half okħáŋ šni – to be busy okħólakičhiye – a group, organization, club, or society opħéič’itħuŋ – to buy something for oneself owíyopħeye – a store, stall or stand to sell something

owóžu – a garden tħahíŋšpa – a needle (as for sewing) tħaspáŋpħa mní – lemonade waglúla – a worm

wagmíza – corn

waíglamna – to earn income for oneself, earn one’s living wakámna – to earn income, make money, have a job

wakpámni – to distribute things, pass things around wanċátuya – high, elevated, high up wapħóštanċla – a cap waptáye – weeds watħókeča – fruits, wild fruits, berries wawíyopħeyA – to sell things wíyopħekhiyA – to sell something to someone wíyukčaŋ – to think about things, have or form an opinion wóitħuŋpħekA – it is something astonishing wóthāŋih wówapi – a newspaper wówačhiŋye – to be a dependable or useful person or thing yumázaska – to sell something for gain, turn something into profit yužáža – to wash something zigzíča – stretchy, elastic